

I am not in favor of allowing companies that I have a current business relationship with to call me for marketing purposes. I have placed my name on the "No Call List" to eliminate all marketing calls, with no exceptions. I believe that this is the intent of the masses that have also placed their name on the list.